- 3.1 The Company shall, by orders in writing, constitute internal committees (each an “Internal Committee” or “IC”) for each of its offices/ branches/premises, to conduct an inquiry into a complaint of Sexual Harassment at the Workplace. The order constituting the ICs shall be displayed at conspicuous places at the respective premises, and such orders shall interalia contain names and contact details of all the members of the IC.
- 3.2 The membership of each of the ICs shall be in accordance with the provisions set out at Annexure III of this PoSH Policy.
- 3.3 The Act has vested the IC with certain powers that a civil court has under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. Accordingly, the IC shall be vested with the powers of: (a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person, and examining them on oath, and (b) requiring the discovery and production of documents; as are provided to a civil court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.
- 3.4 For the avoidance of any doubt, it is clarified that when the Aggrieved Person is not a woman, the IC shall act in the capacity of an internal disciplinary committee of the Company (and not in its capacity as a statutory authority as stipulated under the Act); and all provisions of this PoSH Policy (other than the provisions of Clause 3.3 above), shall continue to apply to such cases.
- 3.5 The ICs shall perform their duties as prescribed under all applicable laws, the Act, and this PoSH Policy including interalia as set out below:
 - i. Comply with all applicable laws, the provisions of Act, and this PoSH Policy.
 - ii. Conduct the inquiry into complaints relating to Sexual Harassment at the Workplace in a fair, diligent and expeditious manner.
 - iii. Formulate programmes for the spread of awareness of the PoSH Policy among the management and Employees of the Company.

- iv. Keep a record of all complaints received and the actions taken by the IC and the Employer thereon.
- v. Comply with all reporting and filing requirements as may be prescribed under applicable laws and the Act, from time to time.
- vi. Maintain confidentiality of the IC proceedings including any and all information in relation to the contents of the complaint, the identity and addresses of the Complainant, Respondent and witnesses, the conciliation and inquiry proceedings, findings and recommendations of the IC, the action taken by the Company, etc.

SECTION IV: INQUIRY AND REDRESSAL PROCESS

Filing of Complaint

- 4.1 A complaint can be made by an Aggrieved Person and in certain special circumstances (i.e., in case of physical incapacity, mental incapacity, death or otherwise as provided in Annexure I of this PoSH Policy) by the persons stipulated in Annexure I of this PoSH Policy. All complaints should be submitted to the IC.
- 4.2 The Complainant should make the complaint in writing or through email to either any member of the IC or the following group email ID of the IC [piposh@piind.com]. However, in case the Complainant makes an oral complaint to the IC and is unable to make a written complaint, any member of the IC shall render all reasonable assistance to the Complainant for making the complaint in writing.

Along with the complaint, the Complainant should submit any and all supporting documents and information, and the name and details of the Respondent, and names and addresses of the witnesses, if any.

- 4.3 A Complainant may submit the complaint of Sexual Harassment at the Workplace, to the IC, within 3 (three) months from the date of the incident and in case of a series of incidents, within a period of 3 (three) months from the date of the last incident. The IC may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the aforesaid time period by a maximum of 3 (three) more months, if it is satisfied that circumstances were such which prevented the Complainant from making a complaint within the original 3 (three) month period.

- 4.4 On receipt of the complaint, the IC shall send 1 (one) copy of the complaint (and other supporting documents, information, and other details etc. submitted by the Complainant to it) to the Respondent within 7 (seven) working days.

The Respondent shall file his/her/their reply to the complaint along with any supporting documents, information, and names and addresses of witnesses (if any), within a period of ten (10) working days from the date on which the Respondent received the copy of the complaint from the IC.

A copy of the response so received from the Respondent (along with supporting documents information, other details etc.) should be shared by the IC, with the Complainant, immediately.

Conciliation

- 4.5 Before initiating an inquiry, the IC may, at the written request of the Aggrieved Person take steps to settle the matter between the Aggrieved Person and the Respondent through conciliation. However, no monetary settlement shall be made a basis of such conciliation.
- 4.6 Where a settlement has been so arrived at mutually in accordance with Clause 4.5 above, the IC shall record the settlement in writing, provide a copy of the same to the Aggrieved Person and the Respondent, and also forward a copy of the same to the Employer to take action as specified in the recommendation of the IC.
- 4.7 Where a settlement has been arrived at in accordance with Clause 4.5 and 4.6 above, no further inquiry shall be conducted by the IC. Having said that, if the Aggrieved Person informs the IC that any term or condition of the settlement has been breached or has not been complied with by the Respondent, the IC shall proceed to make an inquiry into the complaint.

Inquiry Process

- 4.8 In case (a) the Aggrieved Person does not opt for conciliation or (b) the Aggrieved Person opted for conciliation, but no settlement is reached through conciliation or (c) any term or condition of the settlement (arrived at after conciliation) is breached or not complied with by the Respondent; the IC shall proceed to conduct an inquiry into the complaint.

4.9 The inquiry shall be conducted in the presence of a minimum of 3 (three) members of the IC including the Presiding Officer.

4.10 The IC shall conduct the inquiry into the complaint in accordance with the principles of natural justice. This interalia includes giving both parties (and their witnesses) an opportunity of being heard and to present their case; allowing both parties an opportunity to cross examine / ask questions (whether directly or put through the IC) to the other side and the witnesses; providing both parties a copy of the findings (and giving them an opportunity to make representation against the same); providing both parties a copy of the findings, recommendations and the final report of the IC; and making a reasoned report.

The IC shall ensure that the respect and dignity of all parties concerned is maintained during the proceedings and that the proceedings are conducted in a manner so as to ensure freedom of expression and in an atmosphere free of intimidation and free of victimisation.

4.11 The IC shall conduct the inquiry into the complaint in accordance with all applicable laws including without limitation the Act and this PoSH Policy.

4.12 The Complainant or the Respondent shall not be allowed to bring in any legal practitioner to represent them in their respective case, at any stage of the proceedings before the IC.

4.13 During the pendency of the inquiry, on a written request made by the Complainant the IC may recommend to the Employer any of the following reliefs:

- (a) transfer of the Aggrieved Person or the Respondent to any other workplace of the Company; or
- (b) grant leave to the Aggrieved Person for up to a period of 3 (three) months (such leave will be in addition to any other leaves such person would otherwise be entitled to); and / or
- (c) restrain the Respondent from reporting on the work performance of the Aggrieved Person or writing the confidential report of the Aggrieved Person, and assign the same to another officer.

Upon receiving the recommendations from the IC, the Employer shall implement the recommendations made and send a report of such implementation to the IC.

- 4.14 The IC shall have the right to terminate the inquiry proceedings or to give an ex parte decision, in writing, on the complaint, if either of the Complainant or the Respondent fails, without sufficient cause, to present themselves for 3 (three) consecutive hearings before the IC. However, such termination or ex parte order may not be passed without giving a written notice, 15 (fifteen) days in advance, to the party concerned.

Completion of Inquiry and IC's Report

- 4.15 The inquiry by the IC is required to be completed within 90 (ninety) days of the receipt of the complaint.
- 4.16 Upon completion of the inquiry, if the IC arrives at a conclusion that the allegation(s) against the Respondent has not been proved, then it shall recommend to the Employer, in writing that no action is required to be taken in the matter.
- 4.17 Upon completion of the inquiry, if the IC arrives at the conclusion that the allegation(s) against the Respondent has been proved it shall recommend in writing to the Employer to take action against the Respondent, which may interalia include:
- (a) issuance of written warning;
 - (b) seeking a written apology;
 - (c) reprimand or censure;
 - (d) withholding of increments or promotion;
 - (e) deduction from the salary or wages of the Respondent of such sum (as compensation) to be paid to the Aggrieved Person or to his / her /their legal heirs ("Compensation"), as the IC may consider appropriate;
 - (f) termination from service;
 - (g) undergoing counseling session;
 - (h) carrying out community service;
 - (i) Suspension for a period as the IC may find approve;
 - (j) Demotion- reduced to a lower post; and / or
 - (k) taking action for Sexual Harassment as a misconduct as may be prescribed under applicable laws (including service rules, if any), internal policies of the Company and /or the terms of the contract with the Respondent.

For determination of Compensation for the purposes of Clause 4.17(e) above, the IC may take into account the following factors: the mental trauma, pain, suffering and emotional distress caused to the Aggrieved Person; the loss in the career opportunity due to the incident of Sexual Harassment; medical expenses incurred by the Aggrieved

Person for physical or psychiatric treatment; the income and financial status of the Respondent; and feasibility of such payment in lump sum or in instalments.

In case the Employer is unable to make deductions from the salary of the Respondent due to his /her/their being absent from duty or cessation of employment, it may direct the Respondent to pay such sum to the Aggrieved Person. In case the Respondent fails to pay the sum referred to above, the Employer and/ or the IC may pursue any and all such remedies (for recovery of the aforesaid sum) as may be available under the provisions of applicable laws including the Act.

4.18 Where the IC arrives at a conclusion that (a) the allegation made by the Complainant against the Respondent is malicious or (b) the Complainant has made the complaint knowing it to be false or (c) the Complainant, Respondent, or any witness has produced any false evidence, forged or misleading document or false testimony, it may recommend to the Employer to take one or more of the following actions against the Complainant, Respondent or witness, as the case may be:

- (i) issuance of written warning;
- (ii) seeking a written apology;
- (iii) reprimand or censure;
- (iv) withholding of increments or promotion;
- (v) termination from service;
- (vi) undergoing counseling session;
- (vii) carrying out community service;
- (viii) Suspension for a period as the IC may find approve;
- (ix) Demotion- reduced to a lower post; and / or
- (x) taking such action as may be prescribed under applicable laws, internal policies of the Company and / or the terms of the contract with the said person;

Provided that a mere inability to substantiate a complaint or provide adequate proof need not attract action against the Complainant.

The findings mentioned in this Clause 4.18 above shall be established after an inquiry in accordance with the process prescribed before any action is recommended by the IC to the Employer in this regard.

4.19 The IC shall submit a reasoned report in writing with its findings and recommendations (as per Clause 4.16 to 4.18 as applicable), to the Employer within ten (10) days from the date of completion of the inquiry. Copies of the said report shall also be made available to the Complainant and the Respondent within ten (10) days from the date of completion of the inquiry.

- 4.20 Upon receipt of the recommendations of the IC (as provided above) the Employer shall promptly act upon and implement the same, and in any case no later than sixty (60) days of receipt of the same. The Employer will also send a report evidencing implementation of such recommendations to the IC.
- 4.21 In the event the Complainant, Respondent, or any other person is aggrieved by any finding and/or the recommendations of the IC and /or the non-implementation of the recommendation(s) made by the IC, he/she/they may appeal to the Appellate Authority, within a period of ninety (90) days of the recommendations.

For the purposes of this PoSH Policy, the “Appellate Authority” shall be the court, tribunal or authority, as may be prescribed under applicable laws, from time to time, for the purposes of filing of an appeal under the provisions of applicable laws including the Act.

SECTION V: OTHER PROVISIONS

- 5.1 The contents of the complaint made, the identity and addresses of the Complainant, the Respondent and witnesses, any and all information relating to conciliation and inquiry proceedings, findings and recommendations of the IC and the action taken by the Employer as per the provisions of the Act and this PoSH Policy shall not be published, communicated or made known to the public, press and media in any manner. If this provision is contravened, the Employer shall be entitled to take all steps to secure confidentiality, take all actions in accordance with law, the Act, the Company’s policies and / or provisions of the contract with such person, for such breach and also recover from such person such sum as penalty as may be prescribed thereunder.

However, information may be disseminated regarding the justice secured to any victim of Sexual Harassment without disclosing the name, address, identity or any other particulars, which may lead to the identification of the Aggrieved Person, Respondent, the Complainant, and witnesses.

- 5.2 The Company and the IC will take all reasonable measures to ensure that any person who has lodged a complaint under this PoSH Policy or given evidence or other assistance as part of an inquiry under this PoSH Policy, in good faith, is protected and not victimized, retaliated or discriminated against at the Company.

- 5.3 The Company shall perform its obligations and duties as prescribed under all applicable laws, the Act, and this PoSH Policy including the obligations and duties as set out in Annexure II of this PoSH Policy.
- 5.4 The Employees shall abide by the obligations and duties as prescribed under all applicable laws, including inter alia the obligations and duties as set out below:
- i. Comply with all applicable laws including the Act and this PoSH Policy;
 - ii. Familiarize themselves with the Act and this PoSH Policy;
 - iii. Not encourage, engage, abet or participate in any act or behavior that may amount to Sexual Harassment, and / or retaliation against or victimization of any Complainant, witness or other person who has participated in the inquiry proceedings including implementation thereof; and
 - iv. Fully cooperate with the IC in any inquiry or proceedings undertaken by the IC pursuant to this PoSH Policy.
